

“REAL Church and the Next Reformation”

- √ We all want to be known for something. What do you want to be known for?
- √ What do you do when you don't measure up... to yourself?
The moment we start pretending, we stop growing.
To the degree that there is a gap between what I project and the REAL me, to that degree I feel the pressure to pretend.

If people don't know what you're *REAL*ly like, they don't *REAL*ly like you.

- √ We need to be *REAL*ly known by someone(s).
- √ The Church is (suppose to be) the place to be REAL!
- Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. (James 5:16)
- And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another... (Hebrews 10:24)
- Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently... Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. (Galatians 6:1-2)
- Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you... (Romans 15:7)
- √ You and I *REAL*ly need a CIRCLE!
- A place to be REAL, to be accepted, and to be improved.
- A place where you *REAL*ly become “youier,” finer, better.
- A place where you encounter REAL people, REAL friends, and REAL change.
