

Five Things I've Been Thinking About While In China

1. We really are all alike.
2. The Church is alive everywhere.
3. There are not enough workers in the harvest fields.
4. There is power in education to transform lives.
5. Here!

